25X1 9. [ ] Talked with Mr. John Martiny, Counsel, House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, concerning certain amendments to H.R. 10281, the Government Employees Salary Comparability Act. See Memorandum for the Record.

Mr. Martiny also advised that the Daniels bill extending the benefits of the recently enacted annuity adjustment amendment to those who retire between 1 and 30 December 1965 passed the House this afternoon and that Senator Monroney will seek to bring this measure or a similar measure before the Senate.

25X1 10. [ ] Frank Meyer, in the office of Representative Gerald R. Ford, called indicating that he had received a letter from [ ] Mr. Meyer said he thought this fell in the nature of a crank letter but that he would like to check with us. I indicated that [ ] has sent similar letters to at least one-half dozen or more members of the Congress in addition to telegrams to the President. Mr. Meyer said this was enough for him and he was appreciative of our help. 25X1

25X1 11. [ ] Talked with Senator Stennis to advise him that we had followed up with Senator Birch Bayh. The Senator said Mr. Bayh had called him and said we had been most helpful. See Memorandum for the Record for additional details.

25X1 12. [ ] Made arrangements with William Darden to meet with him tomorrow at 10:30 A.M. with John Clarke to go over certain back-up matters on the Agency budget. 25X1 25X1
